

PRIVACY NOTICE

June 2018

Who processes your information?

Waverley Education Foundation is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to pupils and their families is to be processed. Ms Rita Sohal acts as a representative for the school with regard to its data controller responsibilities; and can be contacted through the school.

In some cases, your data will be outsourced to a third party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent, unless the law requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third party processor, the same data protection standards that Waverley Education Foundation upholds are imposed on the processor.

Ms Rita Sohal is the Data Protection Officer. The role of the Data Protection Officer is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures, and to ensure they are compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The Data Protection Officer can be contacted through the school.

Why do we collect and use your information?

Waverley Education Foundation holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to pupils and their families, and we may also receive information regarding them from their previous school, Local Authority and/or the Department for Education. We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements and legitimate interests set out in the GDPR and UK law, including those in relation to the following:

- Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR
- Education Act 1996
- Regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013

In accordance with the GDPR, the personal data of pupils and their families is collected and used for the following reasons:

- To support pupil learning
- To monitor and report on pupil progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To assess the quality of our service
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- To access funding

Which data is collected?

The categories of pupil information that the school collects, holds and shares includes but is not restricted to the following:

- Personal information – names, pupil numbers, addresses and pupil photographs
- Characteristics – ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility
- Attendance information – number of absences and absence reasons
- Assessment information – national curriculum assessment results
- Relevant medical information
- Information relating to Special Educational Needs & Disabilities (SEND) English as an Additional language (EAL)
- Behaviour information – number of temporary exclusions
- Safeguarding/Child Protection information

Whilst the majority of the personal data you provide to the school is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed. Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

How long is your data stored for?

Personal data relating to pupils at Waverley Education Foundation and their families is stored in line with the school's GDPR Data Protection Policy.

In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Will my information be shared?

The school is required to share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis.

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. Waverley Education Foundation is required by law to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census; some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis.
- Producing statistics.
- Providing information, advice or guidance.

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NPD is maintained.

For more information on how this sharing process works, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/national-pupil-database-apply-for-a-data-extract>

For information on which third party organisations (and for which project) pupil level data has been provided to, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-requests-received>

If you need more information about how the DfE collect and use your information, please visit: the DfE website at <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

Waverley Education Foundation will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law allows us to do so. The school routinely shares pupils' information with:

- Pupils' destinations upon leaving the school
- The Local Authority
- The NHS
- School IT contractor (Lendlease)
- Police
- Social Services
- Educational Psychology Department
- Forward Thinking Birmingham (FTB) / Children & Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS)
- Other schools/academies/MATs (only during pupil transfer)
- School catering service providers
- Examination Boards
- Work Experience providers
- Offsite Learning Providers
- Residential trip organiser (and insurers)
- School Photographers
- Sixth Form Colleges and other post 16 providers
- Standards Testing Agency
- Peripatetic agencies (Birmingham Music Services)
- Youth Support Services
- Birmingham Careers Service
- Work Related
- SLUETH

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we are required by law to pass on certain information to our Local Authority or youth support services, who are responsible for the education or training of 13-to-19-year-olds. We may also share specific personal data of pupils who are aged 16 and over with post-16 education and training providers, in order to secure appropriate services for them. The information provided includes addresses and dates of birth of all pupils and their parents, and any information necessary to support the services, e.g. school name, ethnicity or gender.

We will also share certain information about pupils aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

What are your rights?

Parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data.

You have the right to:

- Be informed about how Waverley Education Foundation uses your personal data.
- Request access to the personal data that Waverley Education Foundation holds.
- Request that your personal data is amended if it is inaccurate or incomplete.

- Request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
- Request that the processing of your data is restricted.
- Object to your personal data being processed.

Where the processing of your data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.

If you have a concern about the way Waverley Education Foundation and/or the DfE is collecting or using your personal data, you can raise a concern with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted on 0303 123 1113, Monday-Friday 9am-5pm.

Where can you find out more information?

If you would like to find out more information about how we and/or the DfE collect, use and store your personal data, please visit our website www.waverley.bham.sch.uk www.waverleystudiocollege.co.uk or download our GDPR Data Protection Policy.
